

CASTLE ROCK 2007 PINOT NOIR
WILLAMETTE VALLEY - OREGON

This medium-bodied red offers aromas of cherry and spice. On the palate it gives flavors of red berry, cinnamon, black cherry, vanilla, and floral notes, with a velvety finish. It pairs well with lamb, chicken, veal, salmon and light pasta dishes.

This Pinot Noir is produced from grapes grown in Oregon's Willamette Valley on the same latitude as France's Burgundy region. In the past thirty years this region has gained international recognition as a prestigious appellation for this cool climate varietal.

CASTLE ROCK 2007 PINOT NOIR
WILLAMETTE VALLEY - OREGON

This medium-bodied red offers aromas of cherry and spice. On the palate it gives flavors of red berry, cinnamon, black cherry, vanilla, and floral notes, with a velvety finish. It pairs well with lamb, chicken, veal, salmon and light pasta dishes.

This Pinot Noir is produced from grapes grown in Oregon's Willamette Valley on the same latitude as France's Burgundy region. In the past thirty years this region has gained international recognition as a prestigious appellation for this cool climate varietal.

CASTLE ROCK 2007 PINOT NOIR
WILLAMETTE VALLEY - OREGON

This medium-bodied red offers aromas of cherry and spice. On the palate it gives flavors of red berry, cinnamon, black cherry, vanilla, and floral notes, with a velvety finish. It pairs well with lamb, chicken, veal, salmon and light pasta dishes.

This Pinot Noir is produced from grapes grown in Oregon's Willamette Valley on the same latitude as France's Burgundy region. In the past thirty years this region has gained international recognition as a prestigious appellation for this cool climate varietal.

CASTLE ROCK 2007 PINOT NOIR
WILLAMETTE VALLEY - OREGON

This medium-bodied red offers aromas of cherry and spice. On the palate it gives flavors of red berry, cinnamon, black cherry, vanilla, and floral notes, with a velvety finish. It pairs well with lamb, chicken, veal, salmon and light pasta dishes.

This Pinot Noir is produced from grapes grown in Oregon's Willamette Valley on the same latitude as France's Burgundy region. In the past thirty years this region has gained international recognition as a prestigious appellation for this cool climate varietal.

CASTLE ROCK 2007 PINOT NOIR
WILLAMETTE VALLEY - OREGON

This medium-bodied red offers aromas of cherry and spice. On the palate it gives flavors of red berry, cinnamon, black cherry, vanilla, and floral notes, with a velvety finish. It pairs well with lamb, chicken, veal, salmon and light pasta dishes.

This Pinot Noir is produced from grapes grown in Oregon's Willamette Valley on the same latitude as France's Burgundy region. In the past thirty years this region has gained international recognition as a prestigious appellation for this cool climate varietal.

CASTLE ROCK 2007 PINOT NOIR
WILLAMETTE VALLEY - OREGON

This medium-bodied red offers aromas of cherry and spice. On the palate it gives flavors of red berry, cinnamon, black cherry, vanilla, and floral notes, with a velvety finish. It pairs well with lamb, chicken, veal, salmon and light pasta dishes.

This Pinot Noir is produced from grapes grown in Oregon's Willamette Valley on the same latitude as France's Burgundy region. In the past thirty years this region has gained international recognition as a prestigious appellation for this cool climate varietal.

