

MEEKER

2003 Gold Leaf Cuvée Cabernet Sauvignon

Varietals:	Cabernet Sauvignon
Alcohol:	14.7% by volume
Production:	1,500 cases
Appellation:	Mendocino County
Oak Program:	3 years. Mixed: French and American oak- 40% new and 60% used.
Bottling Dates:	April 24, 2007

Tasting Notes: This cabernet has a big cherry nose with spice and a hint of chocolate. On the palate the cherry fruit is followed by soft tannins and a sweet oak finish.

Comments: This elegant Cabernet is designed as a go-to wine for every night drinking. It has quite a bang for the buck.
